As we reflect on the last one year, we are humbled by the truth that in spite of what we have done in the development sector, there is still so much more to do in the area of rural development and particularly enhancing the rural economy through sustainable livelihood practices.

Our mission has been tremendous achievement indeed. Rabbani Education And Charitable Trust carried out its activities hand in hand with the poorest down trodden and most vulnerable sections of people, through a number of community development and action oriented interventions at grass root levels for gender equalizations and ecological and social empowerment.

And in this pursuit, Rabbani Education And Charitable Trust has played a role during last 23 years in helping and developing needy people through various facilities that they deserve to live themselves with dignity.

We received help in abundance - be it government support, our large-hearted donors, our dedicated friends, and our volunteers and of course our loving dedicated Rabbani Education and Charitable Trust family members.

It proved our philosophy that nature always responds in abundance to pure intentions of need!! This is what miracles are about.

With Warm Regards

Najarudin A. Mathakiya-

Rabbani Education & Charitable Trust over the last decade has established itself as an organization committed towards welfare and empowerment of youth & women. The organization has worked with multiple stakeholders and private sectors to create a platform and an understanding towards this marginalized and voiceless section of the society.

The annual report for the financial year 2022-23 will provide you with our journey in the past year and the Progress we have made so far in this year we have. As I look back, I am happy with the progress and growth we have made and I hope we will grow even bigger and better and do our part towards contributing to the society.

It gives me immense pleasure to say that I work with the same zeal and Enthusiasm as I did when I started and so do all the members of the foundation. With every Passing year as the needs in our mission is growing so are the challenges we are facing, but the efforts on all of our parts are doubled and we are giving our best to mobilize the resources we need. One of the most important things that have kept us going is the smile on the face of our beneficiaries and their words of gratitude.

As we wrap up the year, we would like to thank all those who have supported us, not only our programs and but also our beliefs and perspectives. Without this support, we could not do what we do and could not be who we are.

With Warm Regards,
Mathakiya Ahmedraza H.

Skilling Youth Empowering Nation

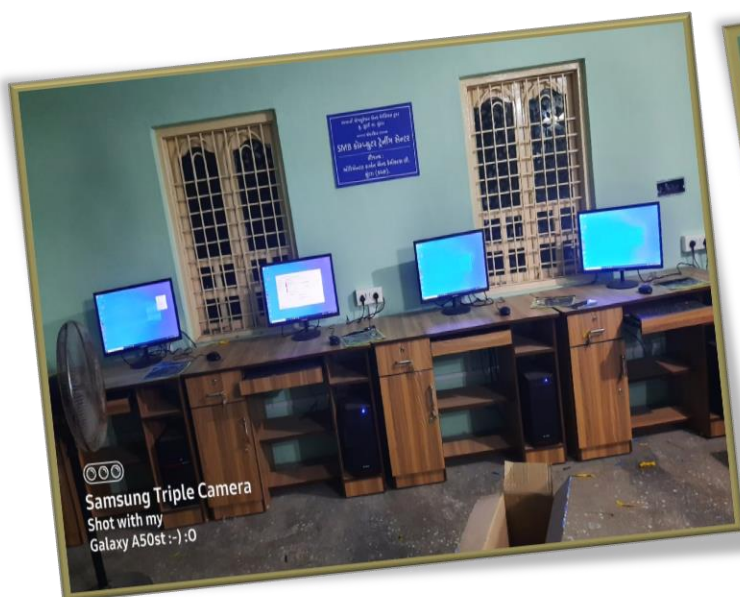

Girls are not just about teaching them how to use technology; it's about breaking barriers, building confidence, and creating opportunities for their future. It's a journey that requires commitment, but the impact on the lives of students will be profound and lasting.

In today's world of rapid developments in technology, there are still hundreds and thousands of marginalized in India that neither have access nor afford computer literacy and skills to better their lives. The government schemes are mostly available online, which people from under-served communities are unable to access.

We are thrilled to announce that the Rabbani Education & Charitable Trust's started new computer centre, a modern sanctuary designed to bridge the digital divide and empower students specially girls with the essential skills for the digital age. This centre, equipped with cutting-edge technology and a curriculum tailored for innovation and creativity, marks a significant milestone in our commitment to providing quality education and equal opportunities for all. After successful completion of basic training on MS office we have distributed certificates.

Baseline survey of livelihood of local women

Conducting a baseline survey of the livelihoods of local women involves systematically gathering data on their current economic activities, income levels, access to resources, education, and skill sets. This comprehensive assessment aims to understand the socio-economic dynamics, challenges, and opportunities faced by women in the community. By analyzing this data, Rabbani Education & Charitable Trust have developed targeted interventions to enhance women's economic empowerment, such as skill development programs, access to microfinance, and entrepreneurship support. The insights gained from the baseline survey were served as a crucial foundation for designing effective strategies to improve the livelihoods of local women and promote sustainable development in the community. From last two years we have initiated Baseline Survey activities for local women to identify work opportunity in surrounded areas of Luni , Mundra Block of Kutch District of Gujarat

Sports Activities

In S.M.J School, we believe in the importance of fostering a well-rounded education that includes physical fitness and teamwork. To achieve this, we organized a wide range of sports activities that cater to the interests and abilities of all our students.

Firstly, we established intramural sports leagues, allowing students to participate in friendly competitions within our school community. These leagues not only promote physical activity but also encourage teamwork, cooperation, and camaraderie among participants.

Additionally, we formed interscholastic sports teams in various disciplines such as football, basketball, volleyball, and track and field. These teams represent our school in competitions against other schools, instilling values of sportsmanship, dedication, and resilience in our students.

Moreover, our physical education classes are an integral part of our curriculum, teaching fundamental movement skills, fitness concepts, and healthy lifestyle habits. These classes provide students with the knowledge and skills necessary to maintain an active and healthy lifestyle beyond their school years.

Connecting to Last Mile

In our initiative to bridge the last mile gap, we've implemented a novel approach by integrating food distribution networks. Recognizing the critical importance of reaching remote and underserved communities, we've leveraged existing food supply chains to establish reliable connections.

Our strategy revolves around optimizing routes and schedules to maximize coverage while minimizing resource expenditure. Utilizing data-driven analytics, we identify areas with the most pressing needs and allocate resources accordingly. This enables us to streamline operations and deliver essential goods to even the most remote locations.

Moreover, we prioritize community engagement and empowerment. Through collaborative efforts with local leaders and volunteers, we establish trust and foster long-term relationships within these communities. This not only enhances the effectiveness of our distribution efforts but also empowers communities to take ownership of their own development.

By intertwining food distribution with last-mile connectivity initiatives, we're not only addressing immediate hunger needs but also laying down a foundation for sustainable development and resilience in underserved regions. Through innovation, collaboration, and community-driven solutions, we're making significant strides towards closing the last mile gap and creating a more inclusive and connected society.

Tree Plantation Program

Our tree plantation program was a concerted effort to contribute positively to the environment and community. With a deep commitment to sustainability and ecological responsibility, we organized a comprehensive initiative that involved students, teachers, and local volunteers.

The program began with thorough planning and coordination, identifying suitable locations for tree planting based on environmental needs and community input. We collaborated with local authorities and environmental organizations to ensure that our efforts aligned with broader conservation goals and best practices.

On the designated planting day, enthusiasm was palpable as participants gathered with shovels, saplings, and a shared sense of purpose. Guided by experts, we ensured proper planting techniques to maximize the survival and growth of each tree. Students actively engaged in the process, learning about the importance of trees in mitigating climate change, improving air quality, and preserving biodiversity.

Beyond planting trees, our program included educational components, such as workshops and presentations, to raise awareness about environmental stewardship and inspire ongoing commitment to conservation efforts. We also emphasized the long-term care and maintenance of the newly planted trees, fostering a sense of ownership and responsibility among participants.

Through our tree plantation program, we not only contributed to reforestation efforts but also fostered a deeper connection to nature and community among all involved. We believe that our collective actions will yield lasting benefits for the environment and future generations.

Green and Clean Village

The "Green and Clean Village" initiative aimed to transform our village into a model of environmental sustainability and cleanliness through collaborative efforts within the community. To achieve this goal, a series of activities were organized to engage villagers of all ages and backgrounds.

Firstly, we conducted awareness campaigns to educate residents about the importance of environmental conservation and cleanliness. These campaigns included workshops, seminars, and door-to-door outreach to promote recycling, waste management, and the adoption of eco-friendly practices.

Next, we organized regular clean-up drives to remove litter and debris from public spaces, including streets, parks, and water bodies. Volunteers from the community, including students, elders, and local organizations, participated enthusiastically in these efforts.

Moreover, tree planting drives were organized to enhance greenery and combat deforestation in our village. Residents came together to plant native trees and create green spaces that not only beautified the surroundings but also provided ecological benefits such as improved air quality and habitat preservation.

Additionally, we implemented sustainable practices such as rainwater harvesting, composting, and organic farming to minimize our environmental footprint and promote self-sufficiency.

Furthermore, we established community gardens and herbal plantations to encourage biodiversity and promote healthy living among villagers.

Through these collective actions, our village underwent a remarkable transformation, becoming cleaner, greener, and more environmentally conscious. The "Green and Clean Village" initiative continues to inspire and empower our community to strive for a sustainable future.
